

Use this guide to learn any NEACURH and NACURH related acronyms.

- Advisor
 - A professional or graduate student employed by a college or university that is responsible for their institution's delegation in the event of an emergency and to support the institution's NRHH an/or RHA
- ADAF
 - Associate Director for Administration and Finance. The AD AF is the officer of NEACURH in charge of business administration and finance, and a member of the NBD.
- AD NRHH
 - Associate Director for NRHH. The AD NRHH is the primary officer of NEACURH NRHH in charge of NRHH policy on the regional level, and a member of the NNBD.
- Board Room Reps
 - These are the people from your institution that represent it and have voting rights at conference boardrooms, chats, etc. Each institution has up to three including their NCC, NRHH representatives, and RHA President.
- Coordinating Officers (CO)
 - Coordinating Officers are the five officers of NEACURH responsible for carrying out specific sets of associated responsibilities. They are CODEI, COEO, COLD, COPRD, and CORS.
- CODEI
 - The Coordinating Officer for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. This officer oversees all initiatives and practices pertaining to diversity, equity, and inclusion. They ensure these aspects are a focus in our region and are not overlooked.
- COEO
 - The Coordinating Officer for Engagement and Outreach. This officer is in charge of many of the NEACURH publications and communications, including the social media and website. The COEO is also in charge of regional affiliation efforts.

- COLD
 - Coordinating Officer for Leadership Development. This officer is in charge of organizing resources regarding leadership development opportunities and educational sessions both at conferences and virtually, as well as creating regional case studies.
- COPRD
 - Coordinating Officer for Programming and RHA Development. This officer is in charge of developing RHA and RHA presidents, running presidents boardroom, RHA presidents chat and more.
- CORS
 - Coordinating Officer for Recognition and Service. This officer is in charge of NEACURH recognition and service project and initiatives, including all regional awards, bids, and regional philanthropy.
- Conference Staff
 - These are the people from the conference host institution that plan, coordinate, and run a conference, including the Conference Chair(s).
- Educational Sessions
 - Formerly known as programming sessions, these are presented by delegates at a conference for other delegates to grow and learn new skills from
- F.R.I.L.L.S.
 - This is the term used to describe the spirit that encompasses all things NEACURH. Friendship, Responsibility, Identity, Learning, Leadership, and Support
- NACURH
 - National Association of College and University Residence Halls, Inc. NACURH is the parent organization of NEACURH and the international association of students living in college and university residence halls. NRHH is the honorary branch of NACURH
- NACURH Annual Conference
 - The NACURH annual conference, sometimes just called "NACURH," is the major meeting of NACURH, Inc., typically taking place in early summer. All member institutions and other institutions are encouraged to send delegations.

- NACURH Executive Committee
 - The NACURH executive committee is comprised of the NACURH Chairperson, the NACURH Associate for Operations (NAO), the NACURH Associate for NRHH (NAN), the NACURH Associate for Engagement (NAE), and ex-officio voting members (the NACURH Advisor, the NACURH NRHH Advisor, the Conference Resource Consultant (CRC), and the past NACURH Chairperson).
- NBD
 - NACURH Board of Directors. The NBD is the governing organization of NACURH comprising the regional directors, the finance officers from each region, and three NACURH executives elected by the NBD from their own ranks (the NACURH Chairperson, the NACURH Associate for Operations, and the NACURH Associate for Engagement).
- NACURH Semi-Annual Business Meeting
 - The NACURH Semi-Annual Business Meeting is the minor meeting of NACURH Inc. typically taking place in the late winter. Member institutions do not send delegations to this meeting.
- NCC
 - National Communications Coordinator. The NCC is an institution's main connection to NACURH and NEACURH.
- NNBD
 - NACURH NRHH Board of Directors. The NNBD is the governing organization of NRHH
- NRHH Rep
 - The NRHH Representative is the official and formal representative of an institution's NRHH chapter to NRHH, NACURH, and NEACURH.
- OTM
 - Of The Month. OTMs are monthly awards of recognition granted by NACURH, voted on an institutional, regional and national level.
- RBD
 - Regional Board of Directors. The RBD are the elected stewards of NEACURH incorporating all regional officers which include the Regional Director, AD AF, AD NRHH, Coordinating Officers, RLC and SLC conference chairs, the Regional Advisor and the Regional NRHH Advisor.

- Regional Advisor
 - The regional advisor is a residential life, housing, or student affairs professional at a member institution who advises the Regional Board of Directors
- Regional Director
 - The regional director is the chief officer and official representative of NEACURH and a member of the NBD.
- Regional Directorship
 - The regional directorship consists of the Regional Director, AD AF, and the AD NRHH.
- Regional NRHH Advisor
 - The regional NRHH advisor is the primary advisor to the AD NRHH for the region and serves as the liaison between NRHH advisors and the region.
- RLC
 - Regional Leadership Conference is the fall Conference of NEACURH
- SLC
 - Spring Leadership Conference is the spring Conference of NEACURH